EVA SPATA SUPPORTS CHRISTINE ANU & DENI HINES AT THE BASEMENT

Two of Australia's most loved and successful recording artists Christine Anu and Deni Hines have joined forces on one tour and will be takin' it to The Basement on Thursday, 26th June May 2008 with Newington resident Eva Spata as their support.

Eva is a versatile performer, whose credits include musical theatre, opera, cabaret, television and radio, as well as producing and directing. Eva has won many awards including Young Ambassador For The Performing Arts (Australia Day Council) and Highly Commanded in Channel Ten's Young Achievers of the Year Awards. Eva has more recently been performing around the country with Encore, with the group recently doing a sell-out performance at The Vanguard. Eva is currently writing and recording towards her debut album to be released in 2009.

"I am looking forward to performing at The Basement and being given the opportunity to share the stage with two of Australia's greatest female artists" says Eva

This is the first time Christine and Deni have performed together. In a two hour show they will perform the hits and favourite songs. From Island Home to Aint No Sunshine, from Sunshine On A Rainy Day to Son Of A Preacher Man. There will also be some special duet performances as well.

Tickets for the The Basement performance are available through www.moshtix.com.au
