

Woman of Substance

Performing to a 20,000-strong audience and even recording an album by the age of 15, you know that Tiffani was destined for fame. Pop stardom came knocking and she stepped into the limelight — as one-fifth of Australia's all time biggest selling female group, Bardot.

After the disbandment of Bardot, Tiffani established her own independent record label and launched her solo career with the sassy release of Bite Your Tongue. Devil In Your Soul, I Touch Myself and Spin The Bottle received heavy airplay and positioned strongly on the Australian Independent Record (AIR) Charts, with the latter peaking at #2.

With baby Lillian Adel in her life, Tiffani is one famous 'Yummy Mummy', sharing on the wonders of motherhood in fashion and parenting magazines as well as on television. Tiffani has been busy with the release of her first children's album Acoustic Dreams — Lullabies For Babies, and also an online fitness platform Mummylush.com for women. From soothing to sizzling come late 2008 when Tiffani joins the high-rolling cast from Las Vegas (Confidential) as sexy burlesque starlet Tiffani Hills.
